

THE LADIES' TAILORS' PARADE. MARCH UP FIFTH AVENUE.

Ladies' Tailors, Striking,
Locked Out and Employed,
Appeal to Fashionables.

IS THE BUSY SEASON NOW.

And They Distribute Circulars
Telling the Tailor-Made Girl
of Their Grievances.

The "ladies' tailors" who have been locked out for twenty-two weeks because, as they say, they refused to sign away their manhood, executed a flank movement on their employers yesterday.

The tailors, who change the Summer girl into the no less charming tailor-made girl of the Winter months, organized a parade yesterday morning of all the men who are on strike or have been locked out and all the ladies' tailors employed in the union shops along Fifth avenue.

The union is composed of men of every nationality, including Greeks, Turks and Armenians, and all claim to be artists. Before the parade, which started from the headquarters, at No. 231 East Thirty-third street, a meeting was held at which P. Schumack presided and Giuseppe V. Oddo was elected Grand Marshal. In accordance with a prearranged programme, the men at work in the union shops stopped work and joined in the parade, and the shops were therefore closed for the day.

It was decided that the men in Carlson's shop should lead the parade, as they first organized the union.

The route of the parade was as follows: the parade passing all the small merchant tailor shops: From No. 231 East Thirty-third street to Fourth avenue, to Thirtieth street, to Fifth avenue, to Fifty-eighth street, to Madison avenue, to Thirty-third street and back to the union headquarters.

Marchal Oddo headed the parade, wearing an immaculate Prince Albert suit and a silk hat and carrying a cane daintily in his gloved hands. Kraupa's band of eleven pieces followed, and then came the aides and the rank and file, about 500 in all.

A small detail of police from the East Thirty-fifth street station marched well in front. Placards setting forth their grievances, the tailors were borne aloft, and circulars were distributed to women along the line of march.

The placards and circulars read as follows:

LADIES.
We are the tailors who have made the coats and gowns for the rich ladies of the country, without being able to earn enough to keep our families and our families starving.

We are locked out for the twenty-second week for refusing to sign the following document:

I, reading at _____, do hereby agree to sign and to place myself, my family and my family in the hands of any other tailor organization, to inform my said employer of this immediately.

LADIES.
Ladies of employers who locked out the men and of those who employed union men were also displayed.

A meeting of the rich ladies was held afterward. The women looked as if they were hard up, as they declared that they were, and the wives of some who looked careworn and anxious attending the meeting.

The season lasts only about a month and begins again in March. Some of the strikers said it was just nip and tuck whether the employers would yield or not.

HIS DAUGHTER HAUNTS AN ARMORY.
The Artist Inventor Wants Her Sent to Some Institution.

Jacob Sterns, an artist and inventor, of No. 1619 East End avenue, appeared in the Harlem Court yesterday afternoon against his seventeen-year-old daughter Bella, who he says, is incorrigible, will not remain at home, but is almost constantly in and about the armory of the Eighth Regiment.

On February 17, he says, she stole some of her mother's money and ran away with her parents and left home.

The daughter said she was afraid of her father and did not want to return with him. Magistrate Flenner sent the girl to the station house until Thursday.

The father says he has invented a process for burning garbage into oxy and valuable metals and he hopes soon to be able to turn refuse into gold.

ON TRIAL FOR KILLING HER MOTHER-IN-LAW.
Carmela Damato Charged with Beating Her to Death.

Mrs. Carmela Damato was put on trial on a charge of manslaughter, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, at Newark, yesterday, it being alleged that she caused the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Damato, on April 9.

At the time of the elder Mrs. Damato's death, it was supposed that she died from natural causes, some several days later, when she was found lying on the floor, and the body was exhumed. It was found that she had been beaten to death, and the daughter-in-law was charged with the crime.

The prisoner is a young woman, but rather attractive. She was defended by Frank Melhorn, Assistant Prosecutor Head in charge of the case for the people.

Every Bottle of Evans' Proves It!
No drugs or sedatives at the bottom. That's why doctors of EVANS' ALLE do not hesitate to use the bottle upside down and down the last drop.

Ladies' Tailors, Striking,
Locked Out and Employed,
Appeal to Fashionables.

IS THE BUSY SEASON NOW.

And They Distribute Circulars
Telling the Tailor-Made Girl
of Their Grievances.

The "ladies' tailors" who have been locked out for twenty-two weeks because, as they say, they refused to sign away their manhood, executed a flank movement on their employers yesterday.

The tailors, who change the Summer girl into the no less charming tailor-made girl of the Winter months, organized a parade yesterday morning of all the men who are on strike or have been locked out and all the ladies' tailors employed in the union shops along Fifth avenue.

The union is composed of men of every nationality, including Greeks, Turks and Armenians, and all claim to be artists. Before the parade, which started from the headquarters, at No. 231 East Thirty-third street, a meeting was held at which P. Schumack presided and Giuseppe V. Oddo was elected Grand Marshal. In accordance with a prearranged programme, the men at work in the union shops stopped work and joined in the parade, and the shops were therefore closed for the day.

It was decided that the men in Carlson's shop should lead the parade, as they first organized the union.

The route of the parade was as follows: the parade passing all the small merchant tailor shops: From No. 231 East Thirty-third street to Fourth avenue, to Thirtieth street, to Fifth avenue, to Fifty-eighth street, to Madison avenue, to Thirty-third street and back to the union headquarters.

Marchal Oddo headed the parade, wearing an immaculate Prince Albert suit and a silk hat and carrying a cane daintily in his gloved hands. Kraupa's band of eleven pieces followed, and then came the aides and the rank and file, about 500 in all.

A small detail of police from the East Thirty-fifth street station marched well in front. Placards setting forth their grievances, the tailors were borne aloft, and circulars were distributed to women along the line of march.

The placards and circulars read as follows:

LADIES.
We are the tailors who have made the coats and gowns for the rich ladies of the country, without being able to earn enough to keep our families and our families starving.

We are locked out for the twenty-second week for refusing to sign the following document:

I, reading at _____, do hereby agree to sign and to place myself, my family and my family in the hands of any other tailor organization, to inform my said employer of this immediately.

LADIES.
Ladies of employers who locked out the men and of those who employed union men were also displayed.

A meeting of the rich ladies was held afterward. The women looked as if they were hard up, as they declared that they were, and the wives of some who looked careworn and anxious attending the meeting.

The season lasts only about a month and begins again in March. Some of the strikers said it was just nip and tuck whether the employers would yield or not.

HIS DAUGHTER HAUNTS AN ARMORY.
The Artist Inventor Wants Her Sent to Some Institution.

Jacob Sterns, an artist and inventor, of No. 1619 East End avenue, appeared in the Harlem Court yesterday afternoon against his seventeen-year-old daughter Bella, who he says, is incorrigible, will not remain at home, but is almost constantly in and about the armory of the Eighth Regiment.

On February 17, he says, she stole some of her mother's money and ran away with her parents and left home.

The daughter said she was afraid of her father and did not want to return with him. Magistrate Flenner sent the girl to the station house until Thursday.

The father says he has invented a process for burning garbage into oxy and valuable metals and he hopes soon to be able to turn refuse into gold.

ON TRIAL FOR KILLING HER MOTHER-IN-LAW.
Carmela Damato Charged with Beating Her to Death.

Mrs. Carmela Damato was put on trial on a charge of manslaughter, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, at Newark, yesterday, it being alleged that she caused the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Damato, on April 9.

At the time of the elder Mrs. Damato's death, it was supposed that she died from natural causes, some several days later, when she was found lying on the floor, and the body was exhumed. It was found that she had been beaten to death, and the daughter-in-law was charged with the crime.

The prisoner is a young woman, but rather attractive. She was defended by Frank Melhorn, Assistant Prosecutor Head in charge of the case for the people.

Every Bottle of Evans' Proves It!
No drugs or sedatives at the bottom. That's why doctors of EVANS' ALLE do not hesitate to use the bottle upside down and down the last drop.

"DANCE" AVENGING SHOT IN JERSEY CITY. HITS WRONG MAN.

Two Churches Organize Angry Husband Lies in Wait
Classes in the Saltatorial Art. to Shoot E. C. Quackenbush.

BIBLE JUSTIFIES DANCING. HE WOUNDS HIS NEPHEW.

Rev. John L. Scudder Does Not Mistakes Ernest Ranney for His
Want His Parishioners to Be Victim, and Tries to
"Wall Flowers." Kill Him.

PRACTICE BEGAN LAST NIGHT. CAUGHT AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Youth Who Had Taken Wrestling Lessons Was the Only Embarrassing
Quantity in an Evening of Second Effort to Kill
"Real Nice Time." Quackenbush.

"It is to dance" in Jersey City. Three of the biggest churches justify the saltatorial diversion, and two of them openly and ostentatiously teach the gentle art of graceful geostification and drawing room decorum.

Dancing is innocent; those preachers are talking through their hats.

The Rev. John L. Scudder is a progressive pastor. He is pastor of the First Congregational Church, otherwise "the Tabernacle," on the hill, and another big church downtown. All told his parishioners number over 1,000, and the weekly attendance upon the religious teachings of himself and his assistant, the Rev. Sidney H. Cox, sum up twice that total.

The virgin shall rejoice in the dance.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder is the living, moving spirit of the People's Palace, which was instituted on a modest scale after the suggestions embodied in Walter Besant's book, "All Sorts and Conditions of Men."

The daughters of Herodias danced before Herod.

"Young people will dance," says the Rev. Mr. Scudder. "and I propose that my young people shall dance well. The Bible is full of places justifying dancing, and I don't pretend to go beyond the Bible."

And David danced before the Lord.

So the Rev. Mr. Scudder, collaborating with the Rev. Mr. Soddard, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, has established Winter dancing classes.

Mr. Soddard's classes are held in the gymnasium of the People's Palace. The season opened last night. Two hundred young people, about equally divided as to sex, assembled there, anxious to learn the principles of grace and deportment at the very low rate of $1 for ten lessons, last night.

While Professor Dwellin Williams was taking names and addresses and "telling up" his recruits, the Rev. Dr. Scudder briefly explained the mission of his dancing classes.

"Boys go to saloons," he said, "and girls go to dances. I am anxious to give them a better place to go to than either of these places. We propose to give them the dancing under Christian auspices, and keep them away from harmful places."

The Rev. Mr. Scudder was first base man in the Yale baseball team of '74. He is a first baseman and college athlete," he said, "than I ever learned at the Union Theological Seminary. I learned liberal ideas. Dancing, under proper auspices, is not wrong. We always have Christian chaplains here."

Prof. W. R. Gerring, a demure man and a member of Mr. Scudder's church, struck a chord in "G" on the piano.

"Line up! girls on the left; ladies on the right," shouted Professor Dwellin Williams.

Professor Williams was "full evening dress." He was the only gentleman in the hall who did so.

The young women did pretty well at the "first movement." Some of the young men didn't do so badly. One husky youth, who confessed that he had given most of his attention to wrestling lessons, kept a foot on the floor and a low arm around the neck of the pretty typewriter operator.

"Second movement. Grasp opposite lady gently," roundly roared one of the broad-shouldered men.

The youth who had taken wrestling lessons broke the rules by attempting to "grasp" the lady by the neck of her dress. The pretty typewriter operator's consequent gasp caused Professor Williams to act as a referee and order a "break."

The youth who had taken wrestling lessons apologized, and the typewriter operator beamed admiringly.

"We will give two weeks' lessons between 8 and 10 p. m.," explained the Rev. Mr. Scudder. "Some of those preachers who are denouncing our class are becoming professors. We will teach round dances, as well as square dances. We aim to qualify our young people to go out to little parties and not be wall flowers."

DINNER PARTY BROKE UP IN A NASTY FIGHT.

Women Armed, One With a Razor, the Other With Scissors.

At the Raths Keller, Thelma and Broadway, last evening, two well-dressed men and women were dining when a third man appeared.

A general fight started immediately. The men used their fists, but the women produced a razor and a pair of scissors. The affair was becoming quite exciting when the police appeared and arrested the entire party.

The names given at the station house were: George and "Jed" Hanger, of Martin's Hotel; Louis Morgan, of 113 West Thirtieth street; and Dorothy Remond, of No. 230 West Forty-second street.

Not one of them would complain against the other, so the police of the West Thirtieth street station let them all go.

At Half Mile Island, Conn., the summer home of woodbury Griford Langdon, Miss Janet Tilton, daughter of Mrs. Langdon, and daughter of the late Rev. Henry Seligman Montgomery, was married yesterday to Mr. William Grover, rector of the Church of Incarnation, this city, assisted by the Rev. Sylvanus B. Bond, of St. Paul's Church, Newark.

Miss George Brock and Robert Arthur Beatty were married last night by the Rev. Dr. Henry Leck in the Church of Zion and St. Timothy's.

The bride is a daughter of the late Charles J. Brock, who was drowned by her sister, Miss Julia Brock, as maid of honor, and Miss Emma Newman, Miss Sarah Simpson, Miss Edith Hagar, and Miss Jessie Polhemus, were the bridesmaids.

Charles J. Brock, John Becker and William Leck were the bridesmaids. The ceremony was a large reception at the bride's home, No. 104 West Fifty-fifth street.

Miss Estelle Friedman and Samuel Henry Levy were married last night at Delmonico's, and the ceremony was followed by an elaborate bridal dinner.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Friedman, of No. 44 East Sixty-seventh street.

Through trains New York to Cleveland, Ft. Wayne and Chicago, via West Shore and Nickel Plate Roads. Lowest rates. Fast time.

"DANCE" AVENGING SHOT IN JERSEY CITY. HITS WRONG MAN.

Two Churches Organize Angry Husband Lies in Wait
Classes in the Saltatorial Art. to Shoot E. C. Quackenbush.

BIBLE JUSTIFIES DANCING. HE WOUNDS HIS NEPHEW.

Rev. John L. Scudder Does Not Mistakes Ernest Ranney for His
Want His Parishioners to Be Victim, and Tries to
"Wall Flowers." Kill Him.

PRACTICE BEGAN LAST NIGHT. CAUGHT AFTER A STRUGGLE.

Youth Who Had Taken Wrestling Lessons Was the Only Embarrassing
Quantity in an Evening of Second Effort to Kill
"Real Nice Time." Quackenbush.

"It is to dance" in Jersey City. Three of the biggest churches justify the saltatorial diversion, and two of them openly and ostentatiously teach the gentle art of graceful geostification and drawing room decorum.

Dancing is innocent; those preachers are talking through their hats.

The Rev. John L. Scudder is a progressive pastor. He is pastor of the First Congregational Church, otherwise "the Tabernacle," on the hill, and another big church downtown. All told his parishioners number over 1,000, and the weekly attendance upon the religious teachings of himself and his assistant, the Rev. Sidney H. Cox, sum up twice that total.

The virgin shall rejoice in the dance.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder is the living, moving spirit of the People's Palace, which was instituted on a modest scale after the suggestions embodied in Walter Besant's book, "All Sorts and Conditions of Men."

The daughters of Herodias danced before Herod.

"Young people will dance," says the Rev. Mr. Scudder. "and I propose that my young people shall dance well. The Bible is full of places justifying dancing, and I don't pretend to go beyond the Bible."

And David danced before the Lord.

So the Rev. Mr. Scudder, collaborating with the Rev. Mr. Soddard, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, has established Winter dancing classes.

Mr. Soddard's classes are held in the gymnasium of the People's Palace. The season opened last night. Two hundred young people, about equally divided as to sex, assembled there, anxious to learn the principles of grace and deportment at the very low rate of $1 for ten lessons, last night.

While Professor Dwellin Williams was taking names and addresses and "telling up" his recruits, the Rev. Dr. Scudder briefly explained the mission of his dancing classes.

"Boys go to saloons," he said, "and girls go to dances. I am anxious to give them a better place to go to than either of these places. We propose to give them the dancing under Christian auspices, and keep them away from harmful places."

The Rev. Mr. Scudder was first base man in the Yale baseball team of '74. He is a first baseman and college athlete," he said, "than I ever learned at the Union Theological Seminary. I learned liberal ideas. Dancing, under proper auspices, is not wrong. We always have Christian chaplains here."

Prof. W. R. Gerring, a demure man and a member of Mr. Scudder's church, struck a chord in "G" on the piano.

"Line up! girls on the left; ladies on the right," shouted Professor Dwellin Williams.

Professor Williams was "full evening dress." He was the only gentleman in the hall who did so.

The young women did pretty well at the "first movement." Some of the young men didn't do so badly. One husky youth, who confessed that he had given most of his attention to wrestling lessons, kept a foot on the floor and a low arm around the neck of the pretty typewriter operator.

"Second movement. Grasp opposite lady gently," roundly roared one of the broad-shouldered men.

The youth who had taken wrestling lessons broke the rules by attempting to "grasp" the lady by the neck of her dress. The pretty typewriter operator's consequent gasp caused Professor Williams to act as a referee and order a "break."

The youth who had taken wrestling lessons apologized, and the typewriter operator beamed admiringly.

"We will give two weeks' lessons between 8 and 10 p. m.," explained the Rev. Mr. Scudder. "Some of those preachers who are denouncing our class are becoming professors. We will teach round dances, as well as square dances. We aim to qualify our young people to go out to little parties and not be wall flowers."

DINNER PARTY BROKE UP IN A NASTY FIGHT.

Women Armed, One With a Razor, the Other With Scissors.

At the Raths Keller, Thelma and Broadway, last evening, two well-dressed men and women were dining when a third man appeared.

A general fight started immediately. The men used their fists, but the women produced a razor and a pair of scissors. The affair was becoming quite exciting when the police appeared and arrested the entire party.

The names given at the station house were: George and "Jed" Hanger, of Martin's Hotel; Louis Morgan, of 113 West Thirtieth street; and Dorothy Remond, of No. 230 West Forty-second street.

Not one of them would complain against the other, so the police of the West Thirtieth street station let them all go.

At Half Mile Island, Conn., the summer home of woodbury Griford Langdon, Miss Janet Tilton, daughter of Mrs. Langdon, and daughter of the late Rev. Henry Seligman Montgomery, was married yesterday to Mr. William Grover, rector of the Church of Incarnation, this city, assisted by the Rev. Sylvanus B. Bond, of St. Paul's Church, Newark.

Miss George Brock and Robert Arthur Beatty were married last night by the Rev. Dr. Henry Leck in the Church of Zion and St. Timothy's.

The bride is a daughter of the late Charles J. Brock, who was drowned by her sister, Miss Julia Brock, as maid of honor, and Miss Emma Newman, Miss Sarah Simpson, Miss Edith Hagar, and Miss Jessie Polhemus, were the bridesmaids.

Charles J. Brock, John Becker and William Leck were the bridesmaids. The ceremony was a large reception at the bride's home, No. 104 West Fifty-fifth street.

Miss Estelle Friedman and Samuel Henry Levy were married last night at Delmonico's, and the ceremony was followed by an elaborate bridal dinner.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Friedman, of No. 44 East Sixty-seventh street.

Through trains New York to Cleveland, Ft. Wayne and Chicago, via West Shore and Nickel Plate Roads. Lowest rates. Fast time.

WHY WOMEN ARE WEAK. They Break Down Under the Strain of Household Drudgery.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is a Specific for Nervousness, Weakness and Irritability, the Remedy Which Makes Women Well and Strong.

The ceaseless drudgery of household cares is more than the strongest man could endure, and it is no wonder that frail women break down under the strain.

Thousands of women in offices, shops and factories break down in health under the strain and become weak, tired, nervous and debilitated, tortured with female complaints, or racked by headache, neuralgia, backache and kidney trouble.

Women must be helped, and the help they most need is that great strengthener and restorer of vigor and vitality, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It makes weak women strong, creates pure, rich blood, strong nerves, and the vigorous energies of perfect health. Under its magic influence melancholy and despair give place to buoyant happiness. It will cure headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, female weakness of all kinds, and nervous debility.

Mrs. F. E. Morgan, who resides at 177 Austin st., Worcester, Mass., says:

"My nerves were so weak, and I was so very nervous, that I could not sleep nights. I would get up in the morning feeling so weak and tired, with loss of appetite and constipation."

"I gradually grew worse, until life almost seemed a burden, and at last I had nervous prostration. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I had hot flashes, with cold chills; one minute I would be cold and the next be hot perspiration."

I felt too bad for anything, had no strength and no ambition. My sister advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I did so. I am happy to say that all my troubles have disappeared, and I cannot say enough of this wonderful medicine. I have lots of friends who can also testify to its great merits, and this is the only remedy that I should advise people who are sick to use, for it is the most wonderful of all medicines."

If you feel the need of special advice, consult with Dr. Greene freely, personally or by letter, at his office, 35 West 14th st., New York City. He is recognized as the most successful physician in curing disease, and makes no charge for consultation.

DOCTOR "POSTUM."
Some Coffee Experience in Mexico.

"Some years ago I went to a city of Mexico, where I increased my coffee allowance quite considerably."

"In about three months my nerves became seriously affected. A sort of stupor seemed to possess me all day and I suffered great discomfort from dyspepsia. I kept on, however, with the black coffee until just before I left, when I could not keep it down any longer."

W. A. DEBOROUGH.
Capt. Battery A, Light Artillery, Sacramento, Cal.

"I have been entirely cured, and am in perfect health in every way. Am a regular missionary for Postum."

"Whenever I hear a man or woman complain of any pain or disorder that arises from the nervous system, I prescribe Postum. Several of my business friends dub me 'Doctor Postum,' because I have cured them of their indigestion and dyspepsia."

PIMPLES
"My wife had pimples on her face but she has been taking CANDY CATHARTIC and they have all disappeared. I had been troubled with constipation for some time, but after taking the first Candy Cathartic I have had no trouble with this ailment. We cannot speak too highly of Candy Cathartic."

Carl H. Schultz's Lithia Water
Lithia-Vichy-Lithia-Carlbad

FOR WOMEN
DR. BRADY'S REGULATOR has brought happiness to hundreds of women; never had a single failure; positively safe; never causes trouble; price, 50c. DR. BRADY'S CO., 34 West 42nd st., room 21. Open Sunday.

GOING TO ALASKA?
Looking for Grand Scenery? Then write to the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, San Francisco, for "The Gold Fields of Alaska and the Klondike." Map of Alaska.

Pennyroyal Pills
Original and Only Genuine. Sold by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. Price, 50c. per box. Sold by all druggists.

Carl H. Schultz's Lithia Water
Lithia-Vichy-Lithia-Carlbad

FOR WOMEN
DR. BRADY'S REGULATOR has brought happiness to hundreds of women; never had a single failure; positively safe; never causes trouble; price, 50c. DR. BRADY'S CO., 34 West 42nd st., room 21. Open Sunday.

GOING TO ALASKA?
Looking for Grand Scenery? Then write to the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, San Francisco, for "The Gold Fields of Alaska and the Klondike." Map of Alaska.

Pennyroyal Pills
Original and Only Genuine. Sold by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. Price, 50c. per box. Sold by all druggists.

Carl H. Schultz's Lithia Water
Lithia-Vichy-Lithia-Carlbad

FOR WOMEN
DR. BRADY'S REGULATOR has brought happiness to hundreds of women; never had a single failure; positively safe; never causes trouble; price, 50c. DR. BRADY'S CO., 34 West 42nd st., room 21. Open Sunday.

GOING TO ALASKA?
Looking for Grand Scenery? Then write to the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, San Francisco, for "